DEFERS JUNE SUMMIT, SUGGESTS SEPTEMBER/NOVEMBER MEET

G7 very outdated, want India, South Korea, Australia in grouping: Trump

Says it will represent what's going on in the world; favours re-admission of Russia in 'G-10 or G-11'

SHUBHAJIT ROY
NEW DELHI, MAY 31

CALLING THE G7 a "very outdated group", US President Donald Trump said Sunday he would like to include India, Australia, South Korea and Russia in the grouping of the largest advanced economies.

Trump suggested that the Group of 7 be called "G10 or G11", and proposed that the grouping meet in September or November this year.

The G7 comprises the US, UK, France, Germany, Italy, Canada and Japan.

India, which attended the G7 meet in Biarritz, France, in August last year, had been invited by Trump to attend the meet this June. Prime Minister Narendra Modi was expected to travel to the US for the G7 summit at Camp David next month.

The US President shared his thoughts with reporters on Air Force One on his way home after the launch of the first manned mission into space by a private company, SpaceX.

"I am postponing it because I don't feel that as a G7, it properly represents what's going on in the world... It's a very outdated group of countries," he said.

HC asks A.P. govt. to reinstate Ramesh Kumar

[ 4-4-4 + - ]

The Andhra Pradesh government through its government Orders had cut short the term of the State Election Commissioner (SEC) from five to three years, resulting in the expulsion of the standing EC from the post.

Arguments in favour of former SEC:

- Ramesh Kumar's argument was based on the fact that the power conferred under Article 213 of the Constitution to promulgate ordinances was not an absolute entrustment, but was conditional on the satisfaction that the circumstances existed for such an action.

The court also agreed with Mr. Ramesh Kumar's view that the impugned ordinance was in violation of Article 243-K, which states that a SEC could not be removed, except in the same manner as provided for a High Court judge.

HC questions SEC's appointment

- The Andhra Pradesh High Court has termed the appointment of Justice (retired) V. Kanagaraj as State Election Commissioner (SEC) “objectionable”.
- ✓ • The court observed that the appointment was made in accordance with Section 200 of the Andhra Pradesh Panchayat Raj Act, 1994, instead of Article 243K(1) of the Constitution.

7 Sch.

- The court has asked the State government to revisit certain provisions of Section 200 of the Panchayat Raj Act and take a decision in accordance with the spirit of the Constitution as expeditiously as possible.
- The HC noted that an ordinance could not take away the right of the previous SEC without the completion of the tenure (five years) for which he was appointed.
