PM announces taxpayers' charter

Move to honour honest assesseees

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT
NEW DELHI

Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Thursday launched a "Transparent Taxation – Honouring the Honest" platform that provides faceless assessment, faceless appeal and a taxpayers' charter.

He appealed to those not paying taxes, despite having the ability, to come forward and commit themselves to the cause of making the country self-reliant.

From Sept. 25

While the faceless assessment and taxpayers' charter came into force on Thursday itself, the faceless appeal system will be available from

Narendra Modi

September 25, the birth anniversary of Deendayal Upadhyaya.

The assessment system seeks to eliminate corrupt practices by doing away with the territorial jurisdiction of income-tax offices.

- PM Modi is of the view that the structural reforms will add a new dimension along with the transparent taxation platform. He also noted that reforms should be policy-driven and holistic.
- Speaking of the recent measures, he said that nearly 3 lakh cases were resolved under the 'Vivaad Se Vishwas' scheme.

UAE, Israel reach agreement to establish diplomatic ties

Israel will suspend plans to annex parts of West Bank

ASSOCIATED PRESS
DUBAI

President Donald Trump said on Thursday that the United Arab Emirates and Israel have agreed to establish full diplomatic ties as part of a deal to halt the annexation of occupied land sought by the Palestinians for their future state. The announcement makes the UAE the first Gulf Arab state to do so and only the third Arab nation to have active diplomatic ties to Israel.

Mr. Trump tweeted a statement from the countries, acknowledging the deal. He then told reporters in the Oval Office that it was "a truly historic moment". "Now that the ice has been broken I expect more Arab and Muslim countries will follow the United Arab Emirates," he said. The recognition grants a rare diplomatic win to Mr. Trump ahead of the November election.

For Israel, the announcement comes after years of boasting by Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu that his government enjoys closer ties to Arab nations than publicly acknowledged. Mr. Netanyahu has sought to build settlements on lands sought by the Palestinians and embraced a Trump proposal that would allow him to annex large parts of the occupied West Bank while granting Palestinians limited autonomy in other areas.

UAE Crown Prince
Mohammed bin Zayed

For the UAE, it further burnishes its international campaign to be seen as a beacon of tolerance in West Asia despite being governed by autocratic rulers.

Joint statement

A joint statement from the U.S., the UAE and Israel was issued immediately after Trump's tweet. It said delegations would meet in the coming weeks to sign deals on direct flights, security, telecommunications, energy, tourism and health care. The two countries also will partner on fighting the COVID-19 pandemic.

"Opening direct ties between two of the Middle East's most dynamic societies and advanced economies will transform the region by spurring economic growth, enhancing technological innovation and forging closer people-to-people relations," said the statement by Mr. Trump, Mr. Netanyahu and Abu Dhabi Crown Prince Mohammed bin Zayed, the day-to-day ruler of the UAE. It said the leaders had a three-way call discussing the deal.

'Consider more languages in govt.'

Official Languages Act can be amended to bring it up to date, CJI tells Centre

LEGAL CORRESPONDENT
NEW DELHI

Chief Justice of India Sharad A. Bobde has said that the government should consider amending the Official Languages Act of 1963 to include more vernacular languages in governance, and not just confine it to Hindi and English.

"These days, translation is the easiest task between you and Google translator. In Parliament, any language is translated. We are also translating our judgments into vernacular languages... You [Centre] can bring your Act up to date," Chief Justice Bobde told the government, represented by Solicitor-

Sharad A. Bobde

General Tushar Mehta.

To this, Mr. Mehta quoted Albert Einstein, that a translation cannot be as evocative as the original version. It was like looking at the rear side of an embroidered cloth.

"But here it is from English to our vernacular languages," one of the judges on the Bench replied.

The court was hearing an appeal filed by the Union of India challenging the legality of a Delhi High Court judgment of June 30 to translate the draft Environment Impact Assessment (EIA) notification of 2020 into all 22 vernacular languages in the Eighth Schedule of the Constitution.

The High Court had reasoned that the EIA concerned environmental restrictions on building, expansion and modernisation of major infrastructure projects across the country. The EIA should reach the maximum number of people without discrimination to any part of the country, especially the non-Hindi speaking parts of India. It should reach and be understood by the rural population of the country. The High Court wanted to ensure maximum public participation, so that people studied the draft and responded with suggestions and objections.

"We do not object to the High Court judgment," Chief Justice Bobde told Mr. Mehta. The apex court then gave Mr. Mehta permission to withdraw and return to the High Court with a review petition. The government could come back to it if the review plea failed.

Eighth Schedule

Languages recognized by the Constitution. Originally, it had 14 languages but presently there are 22 languages. They are: Assamese, Bengali, Bodo, Dogri (Dongri), Gujarati, Hindi, Kannada, Kashmiri, Konkani, Mathili (Maithili), Malayalam, Manipuri, Marathi, Nepali, Odia, Punjabi, Sanskrit, Santhali, Sindhi, Tamil, Telugu and Urdu. Sindhi was added by the 21st Amendment Act of 1967; Konkani, Manipuri and Nepali were added by the 71st Amendment Act of 1992; and Bodo, Dongri, Maithili and Santhali were added by the 92nd Amendment Act of 2003. Oriya was renamed as 'Odia' by the 96th Amendment Act of 2011.

India announces $500 mn package for the Maldives

GMCP project to be the biggest intra island connectivity plan in the island nation, says Centre

SUHASINI HAIDAR
NEW DELHI

India announced a slew of new connectivity measures for the Maldives, including air, sea, intra-island and telecommunications in an effort to help the Indian Ocean Islands deal with the economic impact of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Among the initiatives announced at a meeting between External Affairs Minister S. Jaishankar and Maldives Foreign Minister Abdullah Shahid via video-conference on Thursday are an air connectivity “bubble” for travel, a direct ferry service, a submarine cable for telecom connectivity; and assistance for the Greater Male Connectivity project (GMCP) to connect Male to three neighbouring islands, the biggest such project thus far.

“Responding to a request from the Government of Maldives, the External Affairs Minister announced India’s decision to support the implementation of the GMCP in Maldives, through a financial package consisting of a grant of USD 100 million and a new Line of Credit (LoC) of USD 400 million,” the Ministry of External Affairs (MEA) said in a statement.

The GMCP would be the “largest civilian infrastructure project in Maldives”, it noted.

Connecting islands

The project, which will consist of a number of bridges and causeways to connect Male to Villingili, Thilafushi and Gulhifahu islands that span 6.7 km, will take much of the pressure off the main capital island of Male for commercial and residential purposes.

The $400 million Line of Credit comes in addition to a previous LoC of $800 million that was announced by New Delhi in December 2018.

“A landmark moment in Maldives-India cooperation today as we receive Indian assistance of USD250 million as budget support and USD500 million for the Greater Malé Connectivity Project,” said Mr. Solih in a tweet thanking Prime Minister Narendra Modi and India.

When completed, the project would render the Chinese-built Sinemale Friendship bridge connecting Male to two other islands, thus far the most visible infrastructure project in the islands, “insignificant in comparison”, the sources said.

Arunachal groups push for 6th Schedule status

Demand for 2 autonomous councils

GUWAHATI

The revival of the demand for two autonomous councils has made political parties and community-based groups call for bringing the entire Arunachal Pradesh under the ambit of the Sixth Schedule or Article 371 (A) of the Constitution.

The Frontier State bordering Bhutan, China and Myanmar is under the Fifth Schedule that “does not provide special rights for the indigenous communities” unlike the Sixth Schedule.

The Sixth Schedule currently includes 10 autonomous district councils in four northeastern States – Assam, Meghalaya, Mizoram and Tripura.

Nagaland, on the other hand, is governed by Article 371 (A), which says that no Act of Parliament shall apply in the State in several areas unless the Nagaland Assembly so decides by a resolution. These include administration of civil and criminal justice involving decisions according to Naga customary law and ownership and transfer of land and its resources.

“The demand for autonomous councils does not hold water as Arunachal Pradesh is a Fifth Schedule State. Some States in the northeast have autonomous councils because they are under the Sixth Schedule,” said Gicho Kabak, State unit chief of the National People’s Party.

इसके तहत सबसे अधिक अधिकार नगालैंड को हासिल हैं, जहां बाहर से कोई जाकर जमीन नहीं खरीद सकता और संसद से पास कई कानून अब भी लागू नहीं होते।

उनके कई कानून अपनी नगा संस्कृति और कायदे से संचलित होते हैं और इसमें आगे का रास्ता क्या हो, इस पर पिछले कई सालों से केंद्र और राज्य में इसके पैरोकारों के बीच वार्ता भी चल रही है।

यही कारण है कि अनुच्छेद 370 हटा तो सबसे पहले चिंता का स्वर वहीं से आया था।

इसी तरह सिक्किम में जमीन पर न सिर्फ पूरी तरह स्थानीय लोगों को संरक्षण मिला है बल्कि इससे जुड़े मसले सिक्किम से बाहर की अदालत में भी नहीं जा सकते हैं।

इसी तरह इसी अनुच्छेद के तहत महाराष्ट्र और कर्नाटक के 6 जिलों को विशेष अधिकार मिला हुआ है। इसके अंतर्गत इनके लिए अलग बोर्ड गठित हैं और सरकारी नौकरियों में भी तरजीह मिलती है।
