

SAFALTA CLASSTM

An Initiative by अमरउजाला

Practice-2

ENGLISH GRAMMAR

BANK PO/CLERK

3rd Sep 2020 | 08:00 PM – 09:00 PM

Practice-2

By: Santosh Sir

week fortnight month

Direction: Find out the error, if any.

1. The government's earnings/(A) through royalty, dividends and profit sharing/(B) have been steady rising/(C) over the years (D). No Error (E).

steadily ✓

2. The man was/(A) reportedly upset/(B) over his sister's death/(C) about a fortnight behind (D). No Error (E).

ago

3. Despite of/(A) elaborate search operations,/(B) the police could find no trace/(C) of the missing girls (D). No Error (E).

A

4. The factory always emits/(A) a loud sound of hammering while/(B)/ operations of its machines generate a strong vibration,(C)/ causing severely inconvenience to residents (D). No Error (E).

done in clever efficient way severe

5. Slick advertising campaigns,/(A) soaring gold prices and /(B) increasing purchasing power for consumers have/(C) helped develop a market for diamonds (D). No Error (E).

6. The society for animal welfare has/(A) urged people to keep an eye on/(B) injured birds/(C) during the forthcoming festival (D). No Error (E).

Help ← to + v1
v1
in + v ing

I enjoyed the class.
I enjoyed in the class.
place

Direction: Improve the bold part, if needed.

1. A meeting was convened in order to give SEZs a new lease in life.

- (1) new lease of life
- (2) new leasing in life
- (3) leased life
- (4) never lease on life
- (5) No correction required

2. A group of lawyers took violence while trying to stop another group from attending court.
- (1) violent
 - ✓ (2) took to violence
 - (3) opted for taking violence
 - (4) violently took
 - (5) No correction required

3. For the first time ever, a government advisory board asked scientific journals not to publish details of certain biomedical experiments.

- (1) This is first time
- (2) For the first ever time
- (3) At the first time
- (4) First time for
- (5) No correction required

4. People living downstream would get 15-20 minutes to run for their life if the dam bursts.

- (1) run for their lives
- (2) run at their life
- (3) run after their lives
- (4) run for life
- (5) No correction required

Run after - chase

5. The minister also claimed that all the formalities had been completed and it would be implemented in immediate effects.

- (1) immediately in affect
- (2) with immediate effect
- (3) to immediate affect
- (4) immediately with effects
- (5) No correction required

6. Never the one to mince words when it comes speaking his mind, the captain criticised the hectic schedule of his team.

- (1) come to speaking
- (2) comes and speaks
- (3) comes to speak
- (4) comes fro speak
- (5) No correction required

7. The Indians are far more transparent than the Americans.

(1) farther

(2) further more

(3) greater

(4) many more

(5) No correction required

far + Comp
much difference of degree
increases

8. He will not be joining the rat race, which starts around this time every year as the board exams draw close.

- (1) draw to close
- (2) drawing a closure
- (3) draw to a close
- (4) draw a closer
- (5) No correction required

9. Lights will go out around the world with hundreds of people sets to take part in the earth hour climate change campaign.

- (1) set to take part
- (2) set to be part
- (3) set for taking part
- (4) set for part
- (5) No correction required

10. With nasty viral infections do the rounds in the city, you should give all its takes to protect yourself.

- (1) coming rounds
- (2) roundabout
- ✓ (3) doing the rounds
- (4) done rounding
- (5) No correction required

2.

(1)

When I arrived, Anthony was playing with his Nintendo.

(2)

When I arrived, Anthony has been playing with his Nintendo.

(3)

When I arrived, Anthony had been playing with his Nintendo.

(4)

When I arrived, Anthony played with his Nintendo.

3. (1) The train wasn't there. It had been left already. ✗
- (2) The train wasn't there. It had left already.
- (3) The train wasn't there. It has left already.
- (4) The train wasn't there. It have left already. ✗