ASI held after trucker s

Shubhra.Pant@timesgroup.com

Gurgaon: An assistant sub-inspector has been arrested for allegedly taking bribe from a Kashmiri truck driver, beating him up inside a police outpost and even stripping him of his clothes on Wednesday morning.

Maqbool, the truck driver, has alleged that the cops abused him all along and even called him a Pakistani when he sought a portion of the money that they had taken as bribe. While Dharamveer has been arrested, four cops who were with him that day have been suspended with immediate effect.)

The alleged incident occurred on the Kundli-Ghaziabad-Palwal expressway when Maqbool was returning from West Bengal after delivering a consignment of apples. On the way back, he had stocked pipes in the truck and stopped the vehicle near Maujpur village so that another driver could take the wheel. Apart from Maqbool, there was a spare driver and helper in the truck.

As soon as they parked the truck along the expressway, a team of Faridabad police stopped the truck, documented some of the items and asked for 30,000 as cash. "We gave them the cash but the cops asked for only Rs 12,000 to start a case. The cops asked Maqbool and others to get out of the truck when the cops all nearby started stripping him of his clothes."
