CAN'T ENTERTAIN THIS: TOP COURT ON PLEA SEEKING HALAL MEAT BAN

13/10/2020

New Delhi : The courts cannot interfere with the food habits of people, the Supreme Court said on Monday, rejecting a plea seeking ban on the Halal method employed by the Muslim community to slaughter animals for meat. A bench headed by justice Sanjay Kishan Kaul questioned the bona fide of the petitioner, stating it was a "mischievous" plea and cannot be entertained.

"Those who want to eat Halal meat can eat Halal meat. Those who want to eat Jhatka meat can eat Jhatka meat," the SC said. P7

3 Employment scenario

Even as economic activity has been resuming with the removal of lockdown restrictions, employment generation and wage growth has not been commensurate. Experts have attributed this to social distancing requirements reducing the number of workers at workplaces and companies cutting wages to reduce costs. This is borne out by the latest Consumer Confidence Survey (CCS) of the RBI, which shows that 81.7% of the respondents believe that the employment scenario has worsened.
